In an effort to reduce the lawn maintenance cost here at Swift Memorial Church, the Trustees are looking for volunteers to mow the church lawn on a weekly basis. The lawnmower and fuel are stored in the shed on the church property. A sign-up sheet for the Lawn Mowing Schedule is in Gibbs Hall.

We are collecting items to help fill backpacks which are sent home with children in the Bourne schools on Fridays. This program is open to any struggling family in the Bourne school district. Together with the Bourne Friends Food Pantry and Bourne UMC, our donations will fill these backpacks with enough food for each child to eat for the weekend.

If you would like to help out, these are the needed items:
Cereal, jelly, mayonnaise, granola bars, crackers, plastic fruit cups and applesauce, corn muffin mix, cookie mix, pancake mix and syrup, canned pasta (including meat), Vienna sausages,
Tuna and Chicken Helper, noodle side packets, bagels, English muffins, mini cupcakes.

Questions or more Information, contact Diane Magnuson, 508-888-8496 or 774-313-8815

The May/June issue of The Upper Room devotional is available and located on the literature stand in the narthex (main entrance). Donations to help offset the cost of materials are appreciated.
