Coming to Swift Memorial Church!

Next Sunday, July 21st

10:00am

What is Messy Church?!?

Messy Church focuses on intergenerational worship

Jesus told His disciples to let the little children come to Him. That ancient biblical commandment was meant to reinforce the idea that those who are introduced to God during the innocence of childhood are more likely to form a lifelong relationship.

But kids today can be so, you know … messy. They get dirty, they spill things on themselves and each other, and sometimes they might even laugh out loud during church.

Hence, Messy Church: It's designed for kids and families, and it's about bringing everyone closer together and to God.

"It is a movement that began in Great Britain in 2004 that is a different way to try to reach families, especially intergenerational," said Janet Westlake, minister of discipleship at Mount Dora United Methodist Church.

Are you ready to try this?!
Bring the whole family, invite friends and we'll see you next Sunday!
