Reopening our church

Swift Memorial leadership held a meeting last week to review and discuss the reopening of our church building. There are many factors to take into consideration. We will work hard to make sure the reopening of our building for in-person worship service is done safely using the CDC (www.cdc.gov) and Church Conference (www.neumc.org) guidelines and recommendations.

In the meantime, our worship service, studies, and meetings will continue online through Zoom.
